

Update August 2, 2020

From 6pm August 2, 2020, Melbourne will also move to Stage 4 restrictions with stronger rules to limit the movement of people – and limit the spread of this virus across our city.

Key changes

Metropolitan Melbourne:

- Areas affected: Banyule, Hume, Moreland, Bayside, Kingston, Mornington Peninsula, Boroondara, Knox, Nillumbik, Brimbank, Manningham, Port Phillip, Cardinia, Maribyrnong, Stonnington, Casey, Maroondah, Whitehorse, Darebin, Melbourne, Whittlesea, Frankston, Melton, Wyndham, Glen Eira, Monash, Yarra, Greater Dandenong, Moonee Valley, Yarra Ranges, Hobsons Bay.
- If you live in metropolitan Melbourne, you will be required to stay home unless you need to leave for four reasons. These reasons are — shopping for food and supplies, care and caregiving, exercise within 5 kilometres of your home, and study and work, if you can't do it from home.

Exemptions include visiting a person with whom you are in an intimate personal relationship, including outside metropolitan Melbourne.

- Exercise will also be limited to within 5 kilometres of a resident's home. They will continue to be allowed to exercise with only one other person, and it will be limited to once per day for a maximum of one hour.
- You must also wear a mask when you leave home for one of the four reasons
- Mitchell Shire will move to stage three restrictions
- An 8:00pm to 5:00am curfew will be in place from 6:00pm Sunday, August 2 for six weeks until September 13th.
- Residents will not be allowed to have visitors in their home. They can be in public with up to two people maximum, including a member of their household.
- Couples that live more than 5 kilometres apart will still be allowed to visit each other.
- Organised sport, such as golf and fishing will not be allowed.
- Funerals will be allowed and remain unchanged, but weddings will not go ahead unless there's a compassionate reason. up to 10 people, plus those conducting the funeral.
- The 5 KM requirement is not applied on pastors and volunteers leaving home for streaming at a church.
- Travel within Victoria outside metropolitan Melbourne: allowed for work, education (if necessary), and care/compassionate purposes only
